The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center announces call for submissions for the “Shots and Stories” show.

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center announces call for artists to participate in the annual “Shots and Stories” exhibit. This show will be on display downstairs in the Marquette Arts and Culture Center’s largest workshop room for the months of February and March. Photographers who are interested in telling stories about their work are invited to submit their work to this non-juried show. There is no submission fee.

The guidelines of the show:

1. Photographs must be matted or framed and ready to hang with wire.
2. A story must accompany the photographs (300-600 words) about the photo, how it is meant to make the viewer feel, or why it is an important shot to the photographer.
3. The story must be mounted on sturdy cardstock paper that can be adhered to the wall.
4. Photographers can submit up to four pieces.

Artwork should arrive at the Art Center between January 23rd through the 25th (Wednesday and Thursday from 2:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., Friday 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.). The show will be displayed through the end of March.

Prizes will be awarded by viewer votes and photographs and stories will be published in the Marquette Monthly. There will be an opening reception on Thursday, February, 7th from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., which will coincide with the February gallery opening in the MACC gallery.
