Community Invited to Vote for Favorite Design

The Marquette Matters Mural Project finalists have been selected and the community now has the opportunity to vote for their favorite design. The public vote will decide which artist receives the Marquette Matters Mural Project commission, a public art project introducing youth to mural painting, community involvement and team-building. Top design submissions are on display at the Peter White Public Library's Youth Services Department (lower level) until June 25, 2012. Finalists include Elisabeth Genske, Alanna Luttenton and Georgi Tsenov. Visit the Peter White Public Library between 9:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. Monday - Thursday, 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. on Friday, and 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. on Saturday to view their designs and cast your vote!

Once decided by the community, the winning design will be realized by the artist and area youth, ages five to eighteen, during painting sessions on July 11th, 12th and 13th at the City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center, located in the lower level of the Peter White Public Library. The completed project will be installed at the Marquette Commons for the Farmers Market season. For more information please contact the City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center at (906) 228-0472.
