THE 100 DAY PROJECT COMMUNITY ART PROJECT LAUNCH

The launch date for the community 100 Day Project will be on January 21, 2014. The Community 100 Day Project invites people to create small daily acts of art everyday for 100 days in a row. Register for free online at The100DayProject.com to become eligible to participate in the project. Registering also offers virtual gallery space and a subscription to the E-newsletter.

The MACC, partner to the 100 Day Project, will serve as a point of communication for people who have registered. There will be optional, monthly check-in meetings at the Art Center for those who want to update or get support from other members. When the 100 days are over, there will be a celebration where artists can present their work at the Ore Dock Brewing Company on Saturday, May 17 at 3-5p.m. More information about this project can be found on the group's FaceBook page or at The100DayProject.com.

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center is located in the lower level of the Peter White Public Library. For more information or questions, please contact (906) 228-0472 or email arts-culture@mqctcy.org.
