“AMAZING CROATIA” EXHIBIT TO OPEN AT PETER WHITE PUBLIC LIBRARY

“Amazing Croatia,” an exhibition of photographs by a contemporary Zagreb born artist Marko Vrdoljak, will be held at the Peter White Public Library Huron Mountain Club Gallery from June 30 through August 28, 2014.

The author has been praised as an important promoter of Croatian natural and cultural heritage. Vrdoljak’s photograph “Sheep Paradise,” taken in Lika area in Croatia, was chosen as the cover photo for the 50th issue of DigitalFoto Magazine, the first ever cover featuring the work of a Croatian photographer. The exhibition consists of 86 photographs, out of which two dozen featuring different parts of the country will be on display, taking the visitors in Marquette through beautiful scenery in Croatia.

The Consulate General of Croatia in Chicago, together with the Peter White Public Library, will hold an opening Reception on June 30, 2014 at 6:30 p.m.

Short remarks will be made by Croatian Consul General, Dr. Jelena Grčić Polić.

Croatian wine and light refreshments will be served.
