BECKY SAVES THE BEES RESCHEDULED PERFORMANCE

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center invites the public to attend “Becky Saves the Bees” on Sunday, August 17 at 5 p.m. in the band shell on Presque Isle in Marquette. In the event of inclement weather, the event will be held at the Lakeview Arena at 401 E. Fair Avenue in Marquette, at 5 p.m.

This free performance is put on by E.A.R.T.H. Angels, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization using aerial performance art to raise awareness of environmental issues. Becky Saves the Bees will teach participants and audiences the global importance of pollinators and the epidemic Colony Collapse Disorder or CCD. The production will include singing, dancing, EcoSuperheros, aerial bees and butterflies.

Audience participation is encouraged. Children dressed as pollinators will be invited on stage to be a part of the performance. For additional information, contact the City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center at 906-228-0472 or e-mail arts-culture@mqctcy.org.
