PUBLIC SURVEY-ARTS AND CULTURE MASTER PLAN

The City of Marquette is seeking public opinion for a 10-year Arts and Culture Master Plan. Consultants Tom Borrup of Creative Community Builders and Christine Harris of Christine Harris Connections have been contracted to assess and determine ways to improve the quality of Marquette's cultural life. The City will be collecting ideas and reflections on building a vibrant community through a public survey. This invaluable data is being gathered to ensure the sustainability of Marquette's vital arts and culture scene. The information will be added to the data collected in the recent City Planning survey for the fullest picture possible. The public is encouraged to take a moment of time to answer this important survey.

This survey will close on March 7, 2014. If you have any questions about this survey or how to complete it, please contact Tiina Harris, Community Services Manager—Arts and Culture, at tharris@mqtcty.org or by calling 906-228-0472.
