THE CITY OF MARQUETTE PRESENTS: NATIONAL QUILTING DAY

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center will host National Quilting Day on Saturday, March 15th, at 11 A.M. in the Peter White Public Library's Community Room. At noon the Marquette County Quilter's Association (MCQA) will speak about their quilts for a "sew and tell." The MCQA will hold fun demonstrations for children and adults on hand quilting, machine quilting, scenery quilting, and other unique techniques. An old fashioned bed turner will be on display along with new and antique quilts. All skill levels are encouraged to come and enjoy this time honored art, but please, all children must be accompanied by an adult.

For more information please call (906) 228-0472 or e-mail arts-culture@mqctcy.org.
