APRIL EXHIBITS: WALTER EARLY AND JUDY SAROSIK

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center announces its April Main Gallery exhibition: Carbon Copies from the Hills by artist Walter Early. This exhibit will be a collection of sculptures highly influenced by nature. Early received his BFA from the University of Kentucky and his MFA from the University of Notre Dame. He has exhibited nationally and internationally and has lectured on art in the United States, Canada and Honduras and was a resident artist at the Museum of Steel Sculpture in Coalbrookdale, England.

The SmallWorks Gallery will feature Roots and Wings by origami artist Judy Sarosik. This Marquette native specializes in peace crane mobiles, as well as origami owls, butterflies and fish. She has exhibited in several local shows and Midwest galleries and was recently invited to speak at the Michigan Art Teachers annual conference. Sarosik likes to create artwork that inspires peace and joy.

The shows will run from March 31 to May 1 and there will be an artist reception on Thursday, April 2 from 6 to 8 p.m.
