FIRST THURSDAY SERIES PRESENTS: DAVID GERALD

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center and the Marquette Blues Society presents David Gerald on Thursday, August 6 at 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend this free concert at the Band Shell on Presque Isle.

David Gerald, raised in Detroit, plays blues and R&B music. Gerald started playing guitar at the age of 16. His influences include Albert King, ZZ Hill, B.B. King and Stevie Ray Vaughan. Gerald has played nationally with his band and has received widespread radio play. He was recently listed as #1 on the ReverbNation blues charts for Michigan blues artists, and his debut album "Hell and Back" reached #1 on the Roots Music Report blues chart for Michigan based artists.

If there is inclement weather, the concert will be held in the Community Room of the Peter White Public Library at 217 N. Front Street in Marquette. For more information or questions, call (906) 228-0472 or email arts-culture@mqcty.org.
