AUGUST EXHIBITS: MENAGERIE and BROOK POWELL

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center announces its August LSAA Gallery exhibition: The Menagerie. The Menagerie is an eclectic group of local artists that encompass various backgrounds; members include a classically trained dancer, as well as those with degrees in art, education and medicine. This exhibit will include paintings, collages, jewelry and prints. Participants in this exhibit are Renee Michaud, Jane Ladeck, Martha Fotopulos, Rene Himes, Gail Mahon and Linda Hirvonen.

The August SmallWorks Gallery will feature artwork by painter Brook Powell. This exhibit will include watercolor paintings inspired by life in the U.P. Powell is an Art and Design graduate from Northern Michigan University, and his artwork has been exhibited throughout Michigan and in North Carolina, Pennsylvania and Kentucky. Powell is currently represented by the White Pine Studio and Gallery in Marquette.

The shows will be running from August 4 to August 28 with an opening artist reception on Thursday, August 6 from 6 to 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend and refreshments will be provided.

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center is located in the lower level of the Peter White Public Library. For more information or questions, please contact (906) 228-0472 or email arts-culture@mqctcy.org.
