TRAVELING COMMUNITY ART PROJECT TO VISIT MARQUETTE

Why I Love Michigan (WILM) will visit Marquette on Monday, July 13, and will be on display from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the parking lot of the Peter White Public Library at 217 N. Front Street. This traveling, statewide community art project is free and open to all ages.

WILM invites people to express why they love Michigan by decorating blank postcards with words and images. All materials will be provided. This program is presented by The AartWorks Project based in Ann Arbor. The AartWorks Project mobile studio has visited over 27 cities throughout the state. Postcards created in Marquette will join the thousands of others and be assembled into one large art installation set to be exhibited during Art Prize in Grand Rapids later this year.
