

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

For Immediate Release

January 5, 2016

For More Information:

City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center / 228-0472

JANUARY EVENTS AT THE MACC ANNOUNCED

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center invites the community to partake in a variety of events during the month of January.

Senior Acting with Moire Embley

Beginning: Mondays from 2 to 4 p.m., Jan. 11 through Feb. 29

Advanced: Mondays from 4 to 5 p.m., Jan. 11 through Feb. 29

Join Moire Embley as she teaches the fundamentals of acting in a private and comfortable setting. Students must register by calling 228-0456. FREE to City of Marquette Residents ($5 per class for Non-Residents). Ages 60+.

Artist Talk – Lali Khalid, Fine Arts Photography

Tuesday, Jan. 19, 6-7 p.m.

Mehreen, or Lali, Khalid was introduced to photography by her father while growing up in Pakistan. Over the past decade she has shared her passion for the art with hundreds of people through workshops, classes, and galleries all over the world. Lali earned her BFA from The National College of Art in Lahore, Pakistan, and her MFA with distinction from Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, NY. To view some of Lali's work, visit www.lalikhali.com. This event is FREE and open to the public.

Ukulele Strum and Sing with Ben Hassenger

Thursday, Jan. 21, 7-9 p.m.

As a part of the inaugural Yooper Uke Week, Hiawatha Music Co-op, in collaboration with the MACC and Jim's Music, will host a ukulele strum and sing with Ben Hassenger at the MACC. This event is FREE and open to the public. A limited supply of loaner instruments will be available to use, so come join the fun!

Intermediate Watercolor with Carl Mayer

Saturday, Jan. 30, 1-4:30 p.m. $45 Registration Fee.

Students must bring their own supplies and sign up prior to class by calling 226-8834.