JULY EXHIBITS: MAZE, GROLEAU, EVENSEN AND BOHNSACK

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center announces its July LSAA Gallery exhibition by Laura Maze, Christine Groleau, and Elizabeth Evensen. Their exhibit, "Converging Visions: 3 Perspectives," will feature a variety of work including prints, watercolor, mixed media, and more. Maze, Groleau, and Evensen are all graduates of Northern Michigan University and have each exhibited their work across the country in solo and group shows.

The July SmallWorks Gallery will feature work by woodblock print artist Ben Bohnsack. A retired pastor, Bohnsack has received degrees from both North Central College (B.A.) and Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary (M. Div.), and has studied drawing at Northern Michigan University. While he has always worked with wood creating practical items like furniture and toys, a 2012 woodblock printing workshop, with artist Nick Wroblewski, ignited his exploration of the art. Bohnsack has been retired for 10 years and currently resides in Sand River with his wife Marcia.

The LSAA exhibit will be running from July 5 to 29 and the SmallWorks exhibit will be up July 1 to 29, with an opening artist reception on Thursday, July 7 from 6 to 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend and refreshments will be provided.

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center is located in the lower level of the Peter White Public Library. For more information or questions, email arts-culture@mqctcy.org.
